THE STATUTES

OF

THE REALM.

108096

PRINTED BY COMMAND

OF HIS MAJESTY

KING GEORGE THE THIRD.

IN PURSUANCE OF AN ADDRESS OF

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

OF GREAT BRITAIN.

From Original Records and Authentic Manuscripts.

VOLUME THE SEVENTH.

MDCCCXX.

PREFACE TO THIS VOLUME.

THE SEVENTH VOLUME OF THE STATUTES OF THE REALM contains the Statutes from the Commencement of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, A. D. 1695-6, to the End of the Reign of the same King, A. D. 1701.

THE Attention that has hitherto been paid to the Principles referred to in the Preface to the Fifth Volume of the Statutes of the Realm, has not in any Degree been relaxed in the Progress of the ensuing Volume; indeed the Consideration that is due to the High Authority under which this great National Work is prepared, cannot fail to command the closest Adherence to those Principles; to enlarge upon them in this Place is therefore unnecessary.

Two Engravings, the One of the Act for continuing the Imprisonment of Counter and others, for the Conspiracy to assassinate the Person of His Sacred Majesty, and the other for the Attainder of the pretended Prince of Wales for High Treason, are inserted respectively at Pages 300 and 739 of this Volume.

LONDON,
March 1820.

JOHN RAITHBY,
SUB-COMMISSIONER.

CHAPTER XII.

An Act for Relief of Poor Prisoners for Debt or Damages.

Rot. Parl. 7 & 8 Gul. III. p. 4. n. 5.

Recital of 22 & 23 C. II. c. 20.

Recital of 30 C. II. c. 4.

The Reasons for passing this Act.

WHEREAS for several charitable and good Reasons an Act of Parliament was made in the Twenty second and Twenty third Yeares of the Reigne of our late Sovereigne Lord King Charles the Second intituled An Act for the Relief and Release of Poor distressed Prisoners for Debt and because of some dubious Construction of some Words in the said Act the same did not answer the full Intent for which it was made And therefore for Explanation thereof and to supply the Defects which did obstruct the good Ends and Purposes of the said Act another Act was made in the same Parliament in the Thirtieth Yeare of the Reigne of the said late King intituled An Act for the further Relief and Discharge of poor distressed Prisoners for Debt by which said last mentioned Act it was enacted That all Persons being in Prison upon the Twenty ninth Day of May One thousand six hundred seventy and eight for Debt or Damages upon any manner of Processe whatsoever issuing out of any Court of Law or Equity and who shall take the Oath in the said first recited Act mentioned should and might bee released and discharged from their Imprisonments in the same manner as Persons being Prisoners might have been by the said first mentioned Act and in case the said Debt and Damages had been ascertained by Judgement. And whereas several Persons have been discharged by virtue of the said two Acts and alsoe by virtue of one other Act of Parliament made in the Second Yeare of the Reigne of His present Majestie and of Her late Majestie Queen Mary entituled An Act for Relief of Poor Prisoners for Debt or Damages but by reason of some Defects in the said Acts of Parliament the Discharges of many of the said Persons have not been effectual. And whereas very many Persons are detained in Prison although they are altogether unable to make any Satisfaction to their Creditors and because of such Confinement are a Charge and Burthen to the Kingdome and rendred incapable to doe such Service as otherwise they might to their King and Countrey and, for the help of themselves and their Families Bee it therefore enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majestie by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and [the[1]] Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same that all Persons in Prison upon the Five and twentieth Day of December in the Yeare of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety and five for Debt or Damages or for or upon any Action or Actions or upon any mean Processe for Debt Account or Trespasse upon the Case which Actions by Prosecution of Law may bee Judgements for Debt or Damages or who may have Judgements entred upon Record against them or are charged in Execution or imprisoned upon Attachments for Debt or upon Outlawries before or after Judgement for Debt or upon any other Processe whatsoever issued out of any Court of Law or Equity for the Cause of Debt or Damages or Costs onely who shall take the Oath in the said first recited Act mentioned and the Oath in this present Act following required to bee taken by Prisoners shall and may bee released and discharged from their Imprisonments in the same forme and in such Manner as is contained and mentioned in the said two first mentioned Acts and as if such Person was Prisoner before and att the time mentioned for the Release and Discharge of such Prisoner in either of the said two first mentioned Acts.

Persons being in Prison for Debt, &c. on 25th Dec. 1695, in the Cases herein mentioned released.

II.

Justices of Peace making Order for Discharge to give Gaolers, &c. an Oath.

AND it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That any Justice or Justices of the Peace who pursuant to the said Two first mentioned Acts and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act shall make any Order for the Discharge of any Poor Prisoner for Debt such Justice or Justices of Peace shall by Sūmons cause to come and call before him or them any Sheriff Goaler or Keeper of Prison of such Goal or Prison of and from which such Prisoner or Prisoners hee shee or they is or are and shall administer and give to such Sheriff Goaler or Keeper of Prison an Oath to this Effect following viz[t].

Rot. Parl. 7 & 8 Gul. III. p. 3. n. 2.

An Act for making navigable the Rivers of Wye and Lugg in the County of Hereford.

Recital of Stat. 14 C.II.

Whereas the free and open Navigation upon the Rivers Wye and Lugg and the Streams falling into them may bee a great increase of Publick Trade and a beneficial easie conveyance of Shipp-Timber and a continual Nursery of Seamen for the Supply and Service of His Majesties Navy. And whereas in and by a certaine Act of Parliament made in the Foureteenth yeare of the Reigne of our late Sovereigne Lord King Charles the Second entituled An Act for the making Navigable of the Rivers of Wye and Lugg and the Rivers and Brookᵉ running into the same in the Counties of Hereford Gloucester and Monmouth Sir William Sandys Knight Windsor Sandys Esq, and Henry Sandys Esq, their Heires and Assigns were impowered and authorized (upon the Terms and under the Provisoes in the said Act mentioned) to makᵉ the said Rivers navigable portable or passable for Barges, Boatᵉ or other Vessells and to remove all Impedimentᵉ that might hinder the said Navigation And in and by the said Act of Parliament they the said Sir William Sandys Windsor Sandys and Henry Sandys their Heires and Assigns were invested with the several Powers and Authorities in the said Act mentioned in order to the carrying on improving and perfecting the said Navigation and to render it effectual from time to time And that they the said Sir William Sandys Windsor Sandys and Henry Sandys their Heires and Assignes and noe other should have use or imploy Barges Boatᵉ or other Vessells upon the said Rivers and receive take and enjoy all Profittᵉ Benefittᵉ & Advantages that should arise by or for the Carriage of any Cõmodities upp or downe the said Rivers In and by which said Act of Parliament it was provided That from the City of Hereford to the City of Bristoll there should bee Boatᵉ fitted for Passengers as well as Merchandize Weekely to goe to and againe between the said Cities and that the Price of all Carriage should not exceed Two third partᵉ of the lowest Rate formerly teken for Carriage of Cõmodities between the said Cities And in and by the said Act it was further provided That they the said Sir William Sandys Windsor Sandys and Henry Sandys should finish the said Work before the Nine and twentieth day of September in the Yeare of oure Lord One thousand six hundred sixty and five And that if the said Work should fail and not bee compleated before that time that the Cõmissioners by virtue of that Act to bee appointed or any Seven of them were thereby impowered to imploy any other Person or Persons to carry on and perfect the said Work And that the Persons soe by the Commissioners imployed should enjoy all Priveleges and performe all thingᵉ by the said Act granted to the said Sir William Sandys Windsor Sandys and Henry Sandys their Heires and Assigns And in and by the said Act several Sũms of Money that had been formerly raised in the County of Hereford and were designed to bee imployed for the opening of the said Rivers were appointed to be paid to the said Sir William Sandys Windsor Sandys and Henry Sandys they giving Security by the said whole Work to pay (for the Publick Use of the said County) Five Poundᵉ per Annum for ever for every Hundred Poundᵉ that they should so receive And they the said Sir William Sandys Windsor Sandys and Henry Sandys did accordingly in or about the Yeare of oure Lord One thousand six hundred sixty and five receive the said several Sũms of Money which amounted in the whole to One thousand three hundred Poundᵉ. And whereas the said Sir William Sandys Windsor Sandys and Henry Sandys never did any thing towardᵉ the making of the said River of Lugg navigable And what they did towardᵉ the said Work upon the said River of Wye was performed soe slightly that most of the Lockᵉ and Passages by them made did in a very few Yeares fall utterly to decay and ruine. And whereas the several Wears in and upon the said Rivers of Wye and Lugg are not onely a greate Obstruction to the Passage of Boatᵉ upon the said Rivers but are likewise an occasion of the destroying the Fish in the said Rivers contrary to the Laws of this Realme Therefore to the end that the Benefittᵉ and Advantages intended to the Inhitantᵉ of the County of Hereford by the

and that the said Sir Wm. Sandys, Windsor Sandys, and Henry Sandys had not acted efficiently; and that the Wears upon the said Rivers were mischievous.

[1] [2] annexed to the Original Act in a separate Schedule.

said Act may not be totally frustrated by the neglect or failure of the said former Undertakers And that the Trade of the said Countie may be encouraged and increased by opening the said Rivers and makeing them and either of them a Cōmon Stream for Barges Boatf and other Vessells And that the Fish in the said Rivers may be preserved and increased be it enacted by the Kingf most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lordf Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That the said Rivers of Wye and Lugg be and from henceforth be accounted deemed and taken to bee free and Cōmon Rivers and Streams to and for all His Majesties Subjectf freely to make use of for the carrying and conveying of all Passengers Goodf Wares and Cōmodities by Boatf Barges Lighters and other Vessells whatsoever.

The said Rivers declared free and common Rivers.

II. Provision for opening and cleansing the said Rivers.

AND for the more effectual cleansing and opening of the said Rivers and perfecting what was begun (and not finished) by the before named Undertakers And for the more orderly management Preservation and carrying on of the said Navigation Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all and every the Estate Interest Powers Liberties Authorities Priveledges Profittf Commodities Benefittf and Advantages whatsoever which in and by the said Act of Parliament were given and granted unto the said Sir William Sandys Windsor Sandys Henry Sandys theire Heires and Assigns shall from henceforth be lodged and vested in the Lord Bishopp of Hereford for the time being The Right Honorable James Lord Chandois The Honorable Paul Foley Esq, Speaker of the House of Cōmons John Lord Scudamore Thomas Lord Conningsby Sir Herbert Croftf Sir Edward Harley James Morgan Thomas Foley junr Robert Price John Dutton Colt Esquires The Mayor of the Citty of Hereford for the time being The Bayliff of Leominster for the time being William Fiens Robert Dobbins Thomas Geares Serjeant att Law Richard Read junr John Scudamore of Kent Church Robert Harley Edward Harley Esquires their Heires and Assignes for ever And that all and every of the said Powers Liberties Authorities Priveleges pfittf Cōmodities Beneffittf and Advantages and all the Estate Right Title and Interest of them the said Sir William Sandys Windsor Sandys and Henry Sandys their Heires and Assigns of in or about the Navigation of the said Rivers Brookf or Streams in the said Act mencōed or any the Ways Passages Streams Lockf Weares Turnpikes Pens for Water Cranes and Wharfes upon or adjoyning to the said Rivers and Streams or any of them are and from henceforth for ever hereafter shall bee by the Authority of this present Act lodged and vested in them the said Lord Bishop of Hereford for the time being The Right Honorable James Lord Chandois The Honorable Paul Foley Esq, Speaker of the House of Cōmons John Lord Scudamore Thomas Lord Conningsby Sir Herbert Croftf Sir Edward Harley James Morgan Thomas Foley Robert Price John Dutton Colt Esquires The Mayor of the Citty of Hereford for the time being The Bayliff of Leominster for the time being William Fiens Robert Dobbins Thomas Geares Serjeant att Law Richard Reed junior John Scudamore of Kent Church Robert Harley Edward Harley Esquires their Heires and Assignes for ever in Trust onely for the Good and Benefitt of the Inhabitantf of the said County of Hereford.

CHAPTER I.

An Act for importing and coining Guineas and Halfe-guineas.

Rot. Parl. 8 & 9 Gul. III. p. 1. n. 1.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the First Session of this present Parliament intituled An Act for taking off the Obligation and Encouragement of coining Guineas for a certaine time therein mentioned itt is enacted That from the Second Day of March in the Yeare of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety five until the First Day of January then next following there shall not be any Obligation of receiving into his Majesties Mint or Mint̄ to be coined any Gold whatsoever nor shall the Officers of his Majesties Mint̄ be obliged to coine any Gold within the time aforesaid for any Person whatsoever and that the Recompences appointed by the Statute made in the Eighteenth Yeare of the Reigne of King Charles the Second and other subsequent Statutes for Encouragement of Coinage shall be applied to the Use of the Silver Mint̄ And it is also thereby further enacted That from and after the said Second Day of March until the said First Day of January it shall not be lawfull for any Person or Persons whatsoever to import Guineas or Halfe-guineas into this Kingdome upon any p̄tence whatsoever upon forfeiture of the said Guineas or Halfe-guineas And whereas the reason of making the said Act was occasioned by the high and unusual Price of Guineas which might in the end be very prejudicial to the Subject But the said Price of Guineas being now reduced to or neare the Standard and sundry Persons being desirous to coine Gold and also to import great Quantities of Guineas and Halfe-guineas which will be very beneficial to the Trade and Comerce of this Kingdome. For the Encouragement whereof Be it enacted by the Kinḡ most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lord̄ Spiritual and Temporal and Cōmons in Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That the said Act and every Clause Matter and Thing therein contained (other than what relates to the Recompences by the said Act appointed to be applied to the Silver Mint̄ and what concerns the Royal African Company) be and are hereby repealed and utterly made void to all intent̄ and purposes and that all and every Person and Persons may freely import into this Kingdome Guineas and Halfe-guineas as they might or usually did before the making the said Act for prohibiting the same.

7 & 8 W.III. c. 13. § 1.

§ 4.

7 & 8 W.III. c. 13. (Exception) repealed.

Guineas and Half Guineas to be freely imported.

(1) The Title of this Parliament does not appear on the early Parts of the Rolls of this Year, but is here taken from the Head of the Ninth Part of this Year.

II. One or more Mills to be for the Coinage of Gold.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the Master and Worker and other Officers of his Majesties Mint in the Tower of London shall on or before the Tenth Day of November One thousand six hundred ninety six prepare and sett apart one or more Mill or Mills Presse or Presses with other Conveniences to be in the first Place imployed in the Coinage of Gold which shall be brought thither by any Person or Persons Native or Forreigner to be received in coined and delivered out in such manner course and order as by the aforesaid Statute made in the Eighteenth Yeare of King Charles the Second is directed and appointed so that the course in Coinage of Gold and Silver be kept in distinct Accounts and not interferre one with another either in receiving into or delivering out of his Majesties said Mint and that such coining and delivering out Gold in a distinct course according to the time of bringing in the same although there be Silver remaining there uncoined shall not be interpreted any undue preferrence to incurr any Penalty in point of delivery of Money coined Any thing in the said Statute of the Eighteenth of King Charles the Second or other Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

An Act to explain that part of the Act passed last Session of Parliament for laying several Duties on Low Wines & Spirit of the first Extraction and for preventing the Fraud and Abuses of Brewers Distillers and other Persons chargeable with the Duties of Excise which relates to the Payment of Tallies & the Interest thereof.

Recital of 7 & 8 W. III. c.30.

Whereas in and by one Act made and passed in the Parliament holden att Westminster in the Seventh and Eighth Yeares of his Majesties Reigne intituled An Act for laying several Duties upon Low Wines or Spirit of the first Extraction and for preventing the Fraud and Abuses of Brewers Distillers and other Persons

§ 33. chargeable with the Duties of Excise itt was (amongst other things) enacted That weekly and every Week from and after the Twentieth Day of April One thousand six hundred and ninety six the Sūm of Six thousand Pound out of the particular Branches or Duties of Excise therein mentioned which are cōmonly called The Hereditary and Temporary Excise or either of them should be paid and applied and is thereby appropriated to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of such Tallies of Pro or Assignement or other Tallies as in the said Act were mentioned to be already levied and to be then remaining unsatisfied on the said particular Branches of Excise or either of them and the Interest thereof not exceeding the Rate of Six Pound per Centum per Añum until the same should be paid off and that from and after the full Satisfaction thereof the like weekly Sūm should be paid and applied and is thereby appropriated to and for the Repayment and Satisfaction of such further Sūms not exceeding Foure hundred thousand pound as by or upon the Creditt of that Act should be borrowed or charged thereupon and such Interest for the same as is therein mentioned so as that the Tallies for the principal Sūms respectively should be paid in course according to their respective Dates until the same should be fully discharged and paid off and the Interest upon every such Talley should be paid every Three Months until the Satisfaction of the Principal And

§ 38. it was thereby further enacted That weekly and every Week from and after the said Twentieth Day of April the Sūm of Six hundred pound out of the Revenue of the General Letter-Office or Post-Office should be paid and applied and is thereby appropriated for payment of such Tallies of Pro or Assignment or other Tallies as in the said Act were mencōed to be already levied and to be then remaining unsatisfied on that Revenue and the Interest thereof not exceding the rate of Six pound per Centum per Annum until the same should be fully paid off and from and after the Satisfaction thereof then the like weekly Sūm out of that Office is to be paid and applied for Satisfaction of such further Sūms not exceeding Forty five thousand pound as by or upon the Creditt of that Act should be borrowed or charged thereupon with Interest as is therein mentioned so as that the Tallies for the principal Sūms respectively should be paid in course according to their respective Dates until the same should be fully discharged and paid off and the Interest upon every such Talley should be paid every Three Months until Satisfaction of the Principal as by the said Act more largely appeares. And whereas some Doubt have arisen whether several of the Tallies which were levied upon the said respective Branches of Revenues between the Two and Twentieth Day of November One thousand six hundred ninety five being the First Day of the Session in which the said Act passed and the Foure and twentieth Day of June One thousaud six hundred ninety six can or may be paid out of the same Revenues appropriated by the said Act in course according to their respective Dates in regard they were not levied before the said Two and Twentieth Day of November One thousand six hundred ninety five or by virtue of the said Act or upon the weekly Sūms thereby appropriated and whether the Interest of the said Tallies levied between the Two and twentieth Day of November One thousand six hundred ninety five and the said Foure and twentieth Day of June and the Interest of the Tallies levied or to be levied for the said Sūm not exceeding Foure hundred thousand pound can or may be paid out of the said Six thousand pound a Week first mentioned in and appropriated by the said Act until the Tallies levied before the said Two and twentieth Day of November One thousand six hundred ninety five and the Interest thereof shall be paid and discharged. For the obviating and clearing of which Doubt and for the better Explanation of the said Act of Parliament in relation to the payment of the said several Tallies and the Interest thereof Be it enacted by the King most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice & Consent of the Lord Spiritual and Temporal and Cōmons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That all the Tallies of Pro or other Tallies which have been levied and are charged upon the said Hereditary and Temporary Excise or either of them or upon the said weekly Sūms of Six thousand pound payable thereout shall be duely paid and satisfied in course according to their respective Dates and not otherwise out of all the weekly Sūms of Six thousand pound a Week appropriated as aforesaid until they shall be fully satisfied without giving any undue Preference by paying any Talley or Tallies of subsequent Date or Dates before Tallies of preceding Date or Dates unlesse in Cases where Money is reserved for payment of the preceding Tallies according to the true intent and meaning and that Doubts had arisen as to Payment of certain Tallies as herein mentioned.

All Tallies of Pro, &c. charged upon Excise, or upon weekly Payments thereout to be satisfied in course without undue Preference.

of the said Act and that the Interest of all the said Tallies in course shall be paid and payable every Three Months out of all the said weekly Sūms of Six thousand pound℔ a Week and that all the Tallies of Pro or other Tallies which have been levied and are charged upon the said Revenue of the Post-Office or upon the said weekly Sūm of Six hundred pound℔ appropriated thereout shall be in like manner duely paid and satisfied in course according to their respective Dates and not otherwise out of the said weekely Sūms of Six hundred pound℔ a Week appropriated as aforesaid until they shall be fully satisfied and without giving any undue p̄ference as aforesaid and that the Interest of the Tallies last mentioned shall be likewise paid and payable every Three Months out of all the said weekly Sūms of Six hundred pound℔ a Week and that for any Offence or Neglect in not duely paying the Principal and Interest or any Part thereof or giving any undue p̄ference contrary to the true meaning of this Act the respective Cōmissioners or other Officers or Persons who shall be guilty thereof shall incurr the same Penalties or Forfeitures as by the said recited Act are prescribed in the like Case or Cases for any such Offence Any thing in this or the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Interest to be paid every Three Months.

Tallies charged on the weekly Revenue of the Post Office, to be paid in like Manner.

Penalty on Officers offending.

CHAPTER XIX.

An Act for repealing a Clause in a former Act relateing to Party Guiles and for the better preventing Fraudt and Abuses [in[1]] Brewers and others chargeable with the Duties of Excise.

Rot. Parl. 8 & 9 Gul. III. p. 4, nu. 3.

Whereas in one Act made in the last Sessions of this present Parliament intituled An Act for laying several Duties upon Low Wines or Spiritt of the first Extraction and for preventing the Fraudt and Abuses of Brewers Distillers and other Persons chargeable with the Duties of Excise itt is amongst other thingt enacted in the Wordt or to the Effect following (videlt) That all common Brewers Innkeepers or Victuallers who after the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand six hundred ninety six shall brew or make a Party Guile shall declare to the Gauger or Gaugers appointed to [gauge &[2]] take an Account of the same how much of such Guile hee or they intended to make into Strong Beer or Ale and how much into Small before any Part of such Guile is cleansed and shall continue all the said Strong Beer in their Tuns until the said Small Beer shall be carried out and delivered and in case such Brewers Innkeepers or Victuallers or their respective Servantt brewing or making such Guile of Beer or Ale shall refuse to declare to such Gauger or Officer how much of their Guile or Brewing they intend to make into Strong Beer or Strong Ale and how much into small before any part of such Guile is cleansed or shall permitt the said Strong Beer to be carried out of their Tuns until the said Small Beer shall be carried out and delivered such Gauger or Gaugers shall charge and returne the whole of such Guile to be Strong and such Brewer Innkeeper or Victualler shall pay the Duties thereof accordingly and in case such Brewer Innkeeper or Victualler or their respective Servantt after such Declaration made shall make any increase of their Strong Beer or Strong Ale so declared as aforesaid by any ways or meanes whatsoever such Increase shall be deemed and taken to be and proceed from mixing Small Beer with Strong Beer or Strong Ale and such Brewer Innkeeper or Victualler shall forfeit and lose for every Barrel so increased the Sum of Forty shillingt and so in proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity over and above the Penalties already imposed for mixing Small Beer with Strong And whereas it is found by Experience that it is inconvenient to the Brewers within London and the weekly Bills of Mortality and impracticable to the Brewers Innkepers and Victuallers in the Country to keep their Strong Beer in their Tuns until their Small Beer is carried out and delivered as by the Clause above recited is required be it therefore enacted by the Kingt most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lordt Spiritual and Temporal and Cōmons in this present Parliament asseembled and by the Authority of the same That from and after the Tenth Day of April in the Yeare of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety seven the said Clause and every thing therein contained shall be and hereby is repealed and made void to all Intentt and purposes whatsoever.

7 & 8 W. III. c. 30. § 15.

in Part repealed.

And for the more effectual preventing the Fraudt of the Brewers which are now frequently practised by mixing Small Beer with Strong Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every Cōmon Brewer who after the said Tenth Day of April shall brew or make any Guile of Beer or Ale shall declare to the Gauger or Gaugers appointed to gauge and take an Account of the same how much Strong Beer or Strong Ale hee intendt to make of such Guile and also how much Small (if hee intendt to make any Small) before any part of such Guile is cleansed or removed out of his Tuns and in case any such Brewer or his respective Servantt brewing or making such Guile of Beer or Ale shall refuse to make such Declaration as aforesaid such Gauger or Gaugers shall charge

II. Brewer to declare how much Strong and Small Beer or Ale he intends to make of each Guile, otherwise the Whole charged as Strong, and Duty accordingly; and Penalty.

unless added in sight of Gauger.

III.

Beer or Ale left and added to a new Guile, charged as new Drink, and Brewer to pay the Duties.

And whereas many Brewers having Strong Beer or Ale remaining in their Brew-houses from the time itt was brewed until the next Guile or Brewing the Quality of which they frequently alter by mixing with the same new Small Beer or old returned Drink and then add the Beer and Ale so altered to the next Guile by means whereof his Majesty is often defrauded of his Duties of Excise Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That if it shall appeare to the Gauger that the Quality of such Strong Beer or Ale so remaining in the Brew-house of a former Guile & added to a Guile of new Drink as aforesaid hath been so altered since it was brewed such Gauger shall charge and returne all such Beer and Ale so altered and added to a Guile of new Drink as if the same were then originally brewed and had never been charged before and such Brewer shall pay the Duties thereof [according [1]] accordingly.

IV.

Brewers to take up, &c. their Pipes, Stop-cocks, and other Conveyances under Ground, and stop up the Hole in every Tun, Batch, &c.

Brewer keeping such Pipe, &c.,

Penalty £100.

And forasmuch as it is found by experience that his Majesty is very much defrauded of his Duties of Excise by many Brewers who by private Pipes and Stopcocks under Ground and other private Conveyancs have Cōmunication between their Strong Beer Tuns and their Small Beer Tuns whereby they do privately mix the Small Beer with their Strong Beer or Ale and also convey their Beer Ale or Worts from the sight and view of the Gaugers appointed to gauge and take an Account of the same which is also prejudicial to other Brewers who work faire and pay His Majesty His full Duty Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every Cōmon Brewer having or keeping any Pipe or Stopcock under Ground or any other private Pipe or other private Conveyance in or about his Brew-house by which any Beer Ale or Worts may be conveyed from one Tun or Brewing Vessell to another or out of any such Tun or Brewing Vessell into any other Place shall before the Eight and twentieth Day of April One thousand six hundred ninety seven take upp or demolish every such Pipe Stop-cock and other private Conveyance and shall also stop upp every hole in every Tun Batch or Float by which any Beer Ale or Worts may be conveyed into or out of such Tun Batch or Float or any of them and that no Common Brewer from and after the said Eight and twentieth Day of April shall have or keep any such Pipe Stopcock or other private Conveyance by which any Beer Ale or Worts may be conveyed from one Tun or Brewing Vessell to another or out of any such Tun or Brewing Vessel into any other Place nor shall have or keep any hole in any such Tun Batch or Float by which any Beer Ale or Worts may be conveyed into or out of such Tun Batch or Float or any of them on paine to forfeit for every such Offence the Sūm of One hundred pounds.

V.

Officers of Excise may break up the Ground in a Common Brewhouse, &c. and search for private Pipes;

and may turn Cocks, &c.

And for the better discovering of all such Pipes Stop-cocks and other private Conveyances aforesaid Be it further enacted That from and after the said Eight and twentieth Day of April it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Gaugers and Officers of Excise or any of them in the Day time and in the presence of a Constable or other lawfull Officer for the Peace on Request first made and Cause declared to break upp the Ground in any Cōmon Brew-house or the Ground neare adjoyning or any Wall Partition or other Place to search for any such private Pipe or other private Conveyance and upon finding any such Pipe or other private Conveyance to follow the same and to break upp the Ground House Wall or other Partition or Place through or into which any such Pipe or other private Conveyance shall lead and to break upp or cutt any such Pipe or other private Conveyance and to turne any Cock or Cocks to try and examine whether such Pipe or other Private Conveyance may or can convey any Beer Ale or Worts out of one Tun or Brewing Vessell into another or out of [any [2]] such Tun or Brewing Vessel into any other Place.

VI.

If no Pipe, &c. found, Officer to make Satisfaction.

Opposing Officers,

Penalty £50.

Provided always That in case upon such Search made as aforesaid no such Pipe or other private Conveyance shall be found such Gaugers and Officers shall make good the Ground Wall or other Place so broken upp as aforesaid or make reasonable Satisfaction to the Owner or Owners thereof and if any cōmon Brewer or any other Person or Persons whatsoever shall oppose obstruct or hinder any such Gauger or Officer in the due Execution of the Powers hereby given and granted every such Brewer and other Person shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sūm of Fifty Pounds.

Chapter XXVII.

An Act for the more effectual Relief of Creditors in Cases of Escapes & for pventing Abuses in Prisons and pretended priveledged Places.

Rot. Parl. 8 & 9 Gul. III. p. 9. nu. 3.

Whereas by reason of the many grievous Extortions and ill Practices of such Persons who have for several Yeares last past respectively executed the Offices of Marshal of the Kingᵉ Bench Warden of the Fleet & Keeper of the Marshalsea Newgate & other Prisons and by several pretended priviledged Places within this Realme both Creditors and Debtors have been notoriously abused and the good Intentᵉ of the Law wholly eluded For Reformation thereof be it enacted by the Kingᵉ most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lordᵉ Spiritual and Temporal and Cōmons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That from and after the First Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety seven all Prisoners either upon Contempt or Mesne Processe or in Execution who are or shall be cōmitted to the Custody of the Marshall of the Kingᵉ Bench Prison or Warden of the Fleet shall be actually detained [within the said Prisons of the Kingᵉ Bench and Fleet or the respective Rules of the same[1]] until they shall be from thence discharged by due course of Law and if att any time from and after the said First Day of May the said Marshall or Warden or any other Keeper or Keepers of any Prison shall permitt and suffer any Prisoner cōmitted to their Custody either in Mesne Processe or in Execution to goe or be att large out of the Rules of their respective Prisons (except by virtue of some Writt of Habeas Corpus or Rule of Court (which Rule of Court shall not be granted but by Motion made or Petition read in open Court) every such going or being out of the said Rules shall be adjudged and deemed and is hereby declared to be an Escape.

Prisoners in the King's Bench or Fleet to be detained there or in the Rules.

Keeper suffering them to go at large without Hab. Corp. &c. deemed an Escape.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the said First Day of May every Person or Persons obtaining Judgment in any Action of Escape against the said Marshall or Warden or their respective lawfull Deputie or Deputies shall and may have not onely the several Remedies already by Law allowed for obtaining Satisfaction thereon but the Judges of the respective Courtᵉ where such Judgement shall be obtained (upon Oath before them made by the Person or Persons obtaining such Judgement that the same was obtained without Fraud or Coven and that the Debt of the Prisoner making such Escape was a true and real Debt and unsatisfied) shall upon Motion made to them in open Court for that purpose sequester the Fees and Proffittᵉ of the Office of Marshall and Warden [or so much or such Part or Proportion thereof as the said Court wherein such Motion shall be made shall think fitt and reasonable with respect to the Debt or Debtᵉ due from such Prisoner or Prisoners so escaping[1]] and in the first Place apply the same towardᵉ Satisfaction of the Debt or Debtᵉ due from the Prisoner or Prisoners who escaped together with all Costᵉ and Damages recovered in such Action of Escape.

II. Upon Judgment in Action of Escape, Marshal or Warden's Fees to be sequestered for Satisfaction.

And to the end that such Satisfaction may not be deferred by any Writt of Error brought for delay onely be it enacted That if the said Marshall or Warden or their respective Deputie or Deputies shall att any Time after the said First Day of May sue forth any Writt or Writtᵉ of [Error[2]] to reverse any Judgement given in any Action of Escape such Marshall or Warden or their respective Deputy or Deputies shall be obliged to putt in special Bail or in default thereof no Execution shall be stayed nor any Sequestration of the Proffittᵉ delayed.

III. Marshal, &c. suing a Writ of Error to reverse Judgment, to put in special Bail.

And whereas it is notorious that diverse great Sūms of Money and other Rewardᵉ have been given to and actually received by the severall Persons executing the respective Offices of Marshall and Warden and other Keepers of the several Prisons within this Kingdome to assist or permitt Prisoners in their Custody to escape in open defiance and contempt of the Laws of this Realme For preventing the like evil Practise for the time to come be it further enacted That if any Marshall or Warden or their respective Deputie or Deputies or any Keeper of any other Prison within this Kingdome shall take any Sūm of Money Reward or Gratuity whatsoever or Security for the same to procure assist connive att or permitt any such Escape and shall be thereof lawfully convicted the said Marshall or Warden or their respective Deputy or Deputies or such other Keeper of any Prisons as aforesaid shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sūm of Five hundred poundᵉ and his said Office and be for ever after incapable of executing any such Office.
